BROOKWOOD HIGH SCH

BROOKWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
Brookwood, Alabama

Paula Hubbard

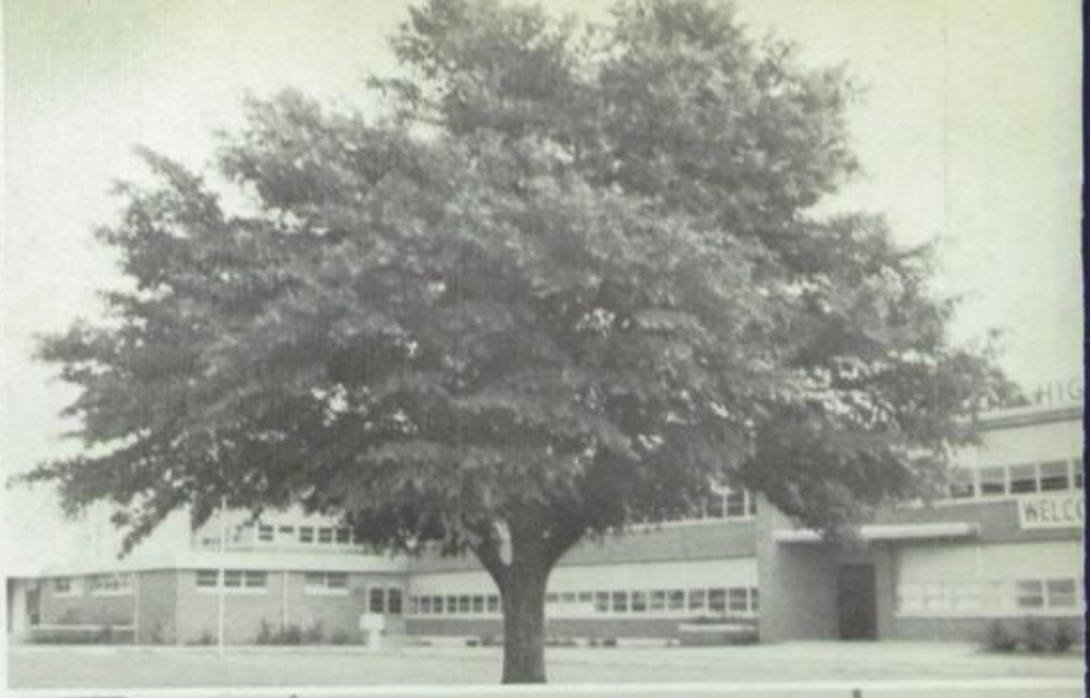
ALMA MATER

We have ever more been loyal,
Though our band be few;
We have rallied 'round our standards
And our colors true.

Always faithful, always loyal
To our ensign bright.
Hail to thee, our high school colors,
Crimson and the white.

Here's to thee, our dear old high school,
Here's to thee a song;
May the happy mem'ries of thee
Linger with thee long.

Pantheron 1964



A SEARCH

Friends, in search of a way of life.
With no true awareness of what we seek,
Friends, all in sure small strife.
Stumbling and falling when no one heeds
The cries for help we all do need
To repeat over and over again.

Friends, all in search of understanding.
Finding awareness and hope, together.

Friends, sharing today in such a way
That we know tomorrow will hold
Wonderful memories of today
With thoughts to ponder, thoughts to weave
Into our days, thoughts of how we've
Searched for and found, awareness.

Having now the answer, too, the understanding,
In one, the door, the other, the key,
Friends end their search with friends.

Dedication

Never has there been so much unselfishness, friendship, kind-heartedness, and tenderness shown to students by a member of the faculty as that shown by the person to whom we dedicate this annual. She is always ready and willing to help any student select the most interesting and most enjoyable book or to find the right information for reports, themes, and essays. She makes each student's visit into the library a visit into a world of knowledge. We present these thoughts and our deep appreciation to her by dedicating the 1964 PANTHERON to Mrs. Maudie Mae Nelson, our school librarian.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Noticeable throughout PANTHERON'S pictorial review is a current of friendliness and cooperation among students, faculty, and community. Without this important atmosphere, it is doubtful that we could achieve our educational goals.

In such a productive environment, we have an excellent opportunity to plan ahead, to ponder the Tomorrows.

Each Tomorrow is brewing new challenges--some exciting, some rather frightening. At Brookwood we strive to prepare our students for meeting these challenges.

A sound education, we believe, is the most practical tool for a youngster to take with him into society. With such an education, our youth will not only fulfill their personal dreams but they will also perpetuate many of ours.

The young are unmistakably our Tomorrow in every sense of the word. Parents, teachers, and students equally have a serious responsibility of cooperating to insure that our Tomorrow is an enlightened, free, fruitful, and peaceful one.

Senior Activities

Exchanging calling cards and signing Golden Record books are a part of the wrapping up of high school activities.

Mr. Dickinson from the employment office discusses the GATB test results with Luther Young to determine what purpose in life's busy whirl he is best suited for.

Rehearsing and putting on the senior play brings smiles, fatigue, and genuine pleasure at having given such a good performance.

These seniors seem to be saddened by the thought of graduation and leaving friends and memories.

Highlights of the senior year include the Halloween Carnival, receiving class rings, and invitations, rehearsing for the senior play, finding out their abilities for certain jobs, and the highlight of all highlights, "graduation."

MRS. CHRISTINE BONETA

The basic goal of homemaking education is to help the individual to live a more useful and satisfying personal family and community life.

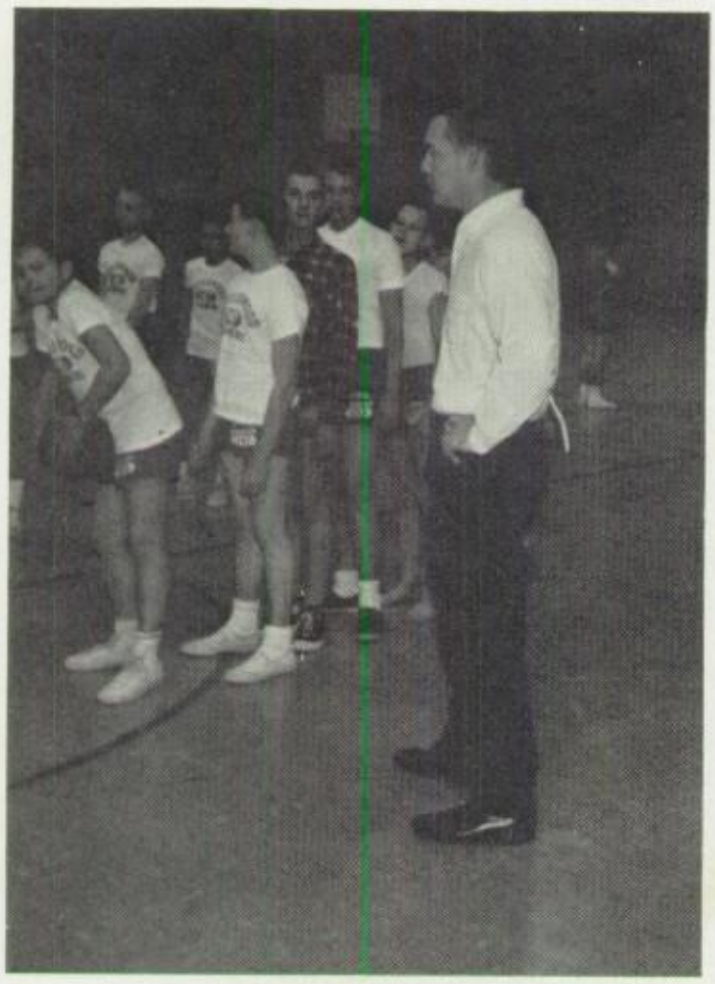
Agriculture

Some of the Agriculture boys learn to handle an electric skill saw.

MR. CHARLES CUNNINGHAM

His contributions to Brookwood High School include teaching vocational agriculture to the boys of Brookwood and helping prepare them for futures in farming, welding, and building. In addition to his academic responsibilities, he assists with maintenance of our school building and facilities.

Physical Education



Ah, such responsibility!

COACH FRED FRICKIE

Physical Education is the process of a belief that if a child is playing and enjoying playing, he will develop the good health necessary to his and his country's well being. Physical Education promotes sportsmanship and citizenship.

An important part of school work is the related activities. A dance, Halloween Party, football banquet, or any other activity serves to offer an opportunity for students to get together socially. These school-sponsored affairs afford us the opportunity of relaxation out of a classroom, and we see our teachers in their after-school personality.

Halloween Carnival

The annual Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the Senior Class, was held this year in the B.H.S. gym on October 29. Games and door prizes furnished entertainment for the evening.

LEFT: Would you believe it? They sold everything but the counter.

RIGHT:
Don't know who won the contest, but I bet it was a hard decision.

LEFT: You don't need a license to fish in this pond. We won't tell the game warden.

RIGHT:
Were all the articles in the Country Store this funny?

Christmas Party

The junior-senior Christmas Party was held Monday, December 16, in the gym, decorated with traditional red and green, holly, and mistletoe.

RIGHT:
No party is complete without the Bunny Hop.

LEFT:
No matter how many games you play, a party is much better with a little slow music and dancing.

RIGHT:
The dance band, under the direction of Mrs. Rush Hill, furnished the music, with brief intervals in which records were played.

LEFT:
If you've ever tried passing lifesavers on toothpicks, you know what ridiculous positions you get into.

Ronald Donaldson receives award for most valuable lineman.

Coach Kincaid introduces football players

Bart Latner receives an award for most improved player.

Jack Kizziah receives award for most valuable player.

F.H.A. Fashion Show

Plans for a party always include a few phone calls, some flowers, and the imaginations of teenage girls.

After a couple of hours of planning and getting ready, these guests are beginning to arrive for a garden party.

The F.H.A. fashion show and beauty walk was held Friday, February 7, in the school auditorium. The theme was "Teen-Time Fashions." About 50 girls modeled clothes they had made in class or at home in five scenes: sleep, school, after-school, garden party, and formal party.

Ten finalists were chosen from the 25 contestants in the beauty walk and 8 finalists were chosen from the 14 contestants in the cutie walk.

What better way to show off a pretty new party dress or formal than a prom or formal party.

Beauty and Cutie Finalists

Master of Ceremonies was Johnny Lawrence. Finalists were Ann Jones, Judy Hayes, Jo Gentry, Jo Stephens, Jackie Edmonds, Cathy Christian, Paula Hubbard, Diane Perry, Elaine Vanoy. Not Shown: Cecilia Morgan.

Paula,
I wrote all the good stuff in your "senior" book. There is nothing good left to say | N/A I really have had fun with you for the past 12 years. Stay the wonderful person you are now and you will always be happy. I love you very dearly. If I can ever do anything for you, let me know. Lots of luck to you + Raymond. May both of you have a long and happy life together.

HOORAY FOR BROOKWOOD!

Paula
You are one of the sweetest girls I know and I am very proud to say that you are one of my best friends. During my two years at Brookwood (last two) I have come to know and respect you very much. You have always been nice and kind to me and I thank you for it. Always keep your pleasant forgiving ways and I will always remain one of your dearest friends (I hope) May God bless you and Raymond in the future and may it be full of the happiness you deserve. Best of luck to you in the future.
